Every Child Always

Newsletter Friday 18th July 2025

Dear families,

As we come to the end of another academic year, I've been reflecting on all the amazing things that have happened here at Anton Infants since September.

One of the highlights was receiving our positive Ofsted outcome, which is a wonderful recognition of the dedication, care, and high standards that define our school. We are so proud of this achievement.

From the joy of our Nativity and the excitement of Sports Day, to the creativity on display during the Year 2 dance performance at The Lights, it's been a year full of unforgettable moments. We've welcomed visitors to school, hosted family workshops, and celebrated together at our Summer and Christmas Fayres.

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who contributed to making these events so special — especially our amazing staff team. Their unwavering commitment ensures that our children continue to thrive every single day.

As we say goodbye for the summer, we also send our very best wishes to our wonderful Year 2 children as they move on to junior school. We are so proud of all you've achieved and know you will continue to shine in the next stage of your journey.

Looking ahead, we're excited to share that we have ambitious plans for further school improvements next year. We can't wait to build on our successes and continue creating the best possible environment for our children to learn, grow, and flourish.

The response to our involvement with the Smartphone-Free Childhood Initiative has been truly inspiring—thank you for your support! Building on this momentum, we're excited to introduce more opportunities for risky play next year. This approach is designed to foster independence, resilience, and creativity in children, encouraging them to explore and imagine beyond screens.

To support this, we'll be hosting a family workshop focused on the benefits of risky play and how you can encourage it at home. We'd love for you to join us! More details will be shared in September.

Finally, I would like to express a heartfelt thank you to everyone for the thoughtful end-of-term gifts, cards, and kind words. Your generosity and support means so much and are truly appreciated.

Wishing you all a restful, joyful, and sunny summer break!

Mrs Skeates
